

That Ain't In The Big Book

If you go to enough meetings, you will most likely hear a great many things and think, "Hey – where'd they get THAT from – 'cause IT AIN'T IN THE BOOK!" Perhaps because the by "The Grapevine" suggested in the late 60's that "Open Discussion Meetings ("OD") might be a good idea -----followed by the boom in rehabs in the late 70's and early 80's, there's been a profound change in the message presented in the rooms. This radical shift in our culture away from a historical / traditional focus on the Program of Alcoholics Anonymous (the Steps) to a sort of "group therapy" where anyone and everyone "shares" whatever might be on their mind has resulted in a significant decline in the success rate of alcoholics finding lasting recovery. We hear many things said in meetings that just cannot be reconciled with the PROGRAM as outlined in the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. And the problem is, if you hear them repeated often enough, they enter our vernacular – they become absorbed into our spoken culture. And for the newcomer, that can be a fatal error. Especially if you believe Bill when he wrote "...unless they follow to the best of (their) ability our suggested Twelve Steps...he almost certainly signs his own death warrant."

So, here's a list of some of the things we often hear, followed by what our literature has to say on the subject.

"Don't drink and go to meetings" Or "Meeting makers make it."

Page 14: Bottom of page: "For if an alcoholic failed to perfect and enlarge his spiritual life through work and self-sacrifice for others, he could not survive the certain trials and low spots ahead."

Page 17: 2: "Unlike the feelings of the ship's passengers, however, our joy in escape from disaster does not subside as we go our individual ways. The feeling of having shared in a common peril is one element in the powerful cement which binds us. But that in itself would never have held us together as we are now joined. The tremendous fact...is that we have discovered a common solution...THIS is the great news this book carries to those who suffer from alcoholism."

Page 34: 2: "For those who are unable to drink moderately the question is how to stop altogether...Whether such a person can quit upon a nonspiritual basis depends upon the extent to which he has already lost the power to choose whether he will drink or not...There was a tremendous urge to cease forever. Yet we found it impossible. This is the baffling feature of alcoholism as we know it--this utter inability to leave it alone, no matter how great the necessity or the wish."

Page 59: "...the steps we took...are suggested as (the) program of recovery."

Page 569 (Appendix 2): bottom of page: "What often takes place in a few months could hardly be accomplished by years of self-discipline."

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions

Page 39-40: "...sobriety brought about by the admission of alcoholism and by attendance at a few meetings is very good indeed, but it is bound to be a far cry from permanent sobriety and a contented, useful life. That is just where the remaining Steps of the A.A. program come in. Nothing short of continuous action upon these as a way of life can bring the much-desired result..."

Page 174: "Unless each A.A. member follows to the best of his ability our suggested Twelve Steps to recovery, he almost certainly signs his own death warrant. His drunkenness and dissolution...result from his personal disobedience to spiritual principles."

Page 15: "A.A.'s Twelve Steps are a group of principles, spiritual in their nature, which, if practiced as a way of life, can expel the obsession to drink and enable the sufferer to become happily and usefully whole."

"We'll love you until you love yourself"

Page 84: 2: "Love and tolerance of others is our code."

Page 94: 1: "...you hope that he will try to help other alcoholics when he escapes his own difficulties. Suggest how important it is that he place the welfare of other people ahead of his own."

Page 97: 1: "Helping others is the foundation stone of your recovery."

"You've got to have Faith, You've Got to have Faith, You've got to have Faith"

Page 47: 3: "I cannot accept as surely true the many articles of faith which are so plain to him. So it was comforting to learn that we could commence at a simpler level."

"Stay out of relationships for the first year!"

Or

"No Sex for the first year"

Page. 69: 1: "We do not want to be the arbiter of anyone's sex conduct."

Page 69: 3: "In meditation, we ask God what we should do about each specific matter. The right answer will come if we want it."

Page 69,:4: "God alone can judge our sex situation."

Page 69 -70: "Counsel with other persons is often desirable, but we let God be the final judge."

Page 70: 2: "We earnestly pray for the right ideal, for guidance in each questionable situation, for sanity, and for the strength to do the right thing."

"This is a selfish program"

Page 20:1: "Our very lives, as ex-problem drinkers depend upon our constant thought of others and how we may help meet their needs."

Page 97:2: "Helping others is the foundation stone of your recovery. A kindly act once in a while isn't enough. You have to act the Good Samaritan every day, if need be. It may mean the loss of many nights' sleep, great interference with your pleasures, interruptions to your business. It may mean sharing your money and your home, counseling frantic wives and relatives, innumerable trips to police courts, sanitariums, hospitals, jails and asylums. Your telephone may jangle at any time of the day or night. "

Page 14-15: "For if an alcoholic failed to perfect and enlarge his spiritual life through work and self-sacrifice for others, he could not survive the certain trials and low spots ahead."

Page 62:2: "Selfishness, self-centeredness! That, we think, is the root of our troubles"

Page 62:3: "So our troubles, we think, are basically of our own making. They arise out of ourselves, and the alcoholic is an extreme example of self-will run riot, though he usually doesn't think so. Above everything, we alcoholics must be rid of this selfishness. We must, or it kills us."

Page 77, top of page: At the moment we are trying to put our lives in order. But this is not an end in itself. Our real purpose is to fit ourselves to be of maximum service to God and the people about us.-----→page 84:2: Our next function is to grow in understanding and effectiveness--→page 85:1: Every day is a day when we must carry the vision of God's will into all of our activities

Page 118:2: "Patience, tolerance, understanding and love are the watchwords."

Page 120:2: "...you will awaken to a new sense of responsibility for others."

"Just do the next right thing"

Page 61:1 "Is he not, even in his best moments, a producer of confusion rather than harmony?"

Page 86:3: "...we may face indecision. We may not be able to determine which course to take. Here we ask God for inspiration, an intuitive thought or a decision. We relax and take it easy. We don't struggle. We are often surprised how the right answers come after we have tried this for a while.

Page 87:0: "We might pay for this presumption in all sorts of absurd actions and ideas. Nevertheless, we find that our thinking will, as time passes, be more and more on the plane of inspiration. We come to rely upon it."

"You only work one step a year"

Or

"Take your time to work the steps"

"Sometimes a new man is anxious to proceed at once. And you may be tempted to let him do so. This is sometimes a mistake. If he has trouble later, he is likely to say you rushed him." (pg.95:1)

Page 569: 3: "What often takes place in a few months could seldom have been accomplished by years of self-discipline."

Page 28: 2: "We...sought the same escape with all the desperation of drowning men"

Page 63: 3: "Next we launched on a course of vigorous action."

Page 74: 2: "If that is so, this step may be postponed, only, however, if we hold ourselves in complete readiness to go through with it at the first opportunity"

Page 75: 3: "Returning home we find a place where we can be quiet for AN HOUR, carefully reviewing what we have done."

"Don't drink, even if your ass falls off."

Or "Don't pick-up no matter what"

Or "Remember your last drunk"

Or "Play the tape all the way through"

Or "If you don't take the first drink, you can't get drunk"

or

"Just say no"

Page 24:1: The fact is that most alcoholics...have lost the power of choice in drink. Our so-called will power becomes practically nonexistent. We are unable, at certain times, to bring into our consciousness with sufficient force the memory of the suffering and humiliation of even a week or a month ago. We are without defense against the first drink."

Page 24: 2: "The almost certain consequences that follow taking even a glass of beer do not crowd into the mind to deter us. If these thoughts do occur, they are hazy and readily supplanted with the old threadbare idea that this time we shall handle ourselves like other people. There is a complete failure of the kind of defense that keeps one from putting his hand on a hot stove."

Page 34:2: "There was a tremendous urge to cease forever. Yet we found it impossible. This is the baffling feature of alcoholism as we know it—this utter inability to leave it alone, no matter how great the necessity or the wish."

Page 43:3: "The alcoholic at certain times has no effective mental defense against the first drink...neither he nor any other human being can provide such a defense. His defense must come from a Higher Power."

"I choose not to drink today"

Page 24: 1: "The fact is that most alcoholics, for reasons yet obscure, have lost the power of choice in drink."

Page 30: 3: "We alcoholics are men and women who have lost the ability to control our drinking."

"We go to meetings to dump...to get things off our chest"

Or

"I'm OK – I don't need to go to a meeting today"

(= Why do we go to meetings?)

Page 15: 2 (last two lines): "We meet frequently so that newcomers may find the fellowship they seek."

Page 89: 2: "Frequent contact with newcomers and with each other is the bright spot of our lives."

Page 159: 3: "Scarce an evening past that someone's home did not shelter a little gathering of men and women, happy in their release...constantly thinking how they might present their discovery to some newcomer."

Page 160: 0: "Aside from fellowship and sociability, the prime object was to provide a time and place where new people might bring their problems."

{In Problems Other Than Alcohol (IP #35), Bill states that "Sobriety — freedom from alcohol — through the teaching and practice of the Twelve Steps is the sole purpose of an A.A. group."

And in As Bill Sees It: Page 105 : "Our chief responsibility to the newcomer is an adequate presentation of the program."}

“That’s just the way I am. I cannot and never will be able to change that.”

Page 76: 1 & 2: “We have emphasized willingness as being indispensable. Are we now ready to let God remove from us all the things which we have admitted are objectionable? Can He now take them all—every one? If we still cling to something we will not let go, we ask God to help us be willing.

“When ready, we say something like this: “My Creator, I am now willing that you should have all of me, good and bad. I pray that you now remove from me every single defect of character which stands in the way of my usefulness to you and my fellows. Grant me strength, as I go out from here, to do your bidding. Amen.”

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions:

Pages 68-69: “Looking again at those defects we are still unwilling to give up, we ought to erase the hard-and-fast lines that we have drawn. Perhaps we shall be obliged in some cases still to say, “This I cannot give up yet . . . ,” but we should not say to ourselves, “This I will never give up! ‘...At the very least, we shall have to come to grips with some of our worst character defects and take action toward their removal as quickly as we can.”

“The moment we say, “No, never!” our minds close against the grace of God. Delay is dangerous, and rebellion may be fatal. This is the exact point at which we abandon limited objectives, and move toward God's will for us”

"I haven't had a drink today, so I'm a complete success today."

OR:

"If all I do is stay sober today, then it's been a good day."

Page 19: 1: "The elimination of drinking is but a beginning. A much more important demonstration of our principles lies before us in our respective homes, occupations and affairs."

Page 51: 0: "Leaving aside the drink question, they tell why living was so unsatisfactory...."

Page 52: 2: "We were having trouble with personal relationships, we couldn't control our emotional natures, we were a prey to misery and depression, we couldn't make a living, we had a feeling of uselessness, we were full of fear, we were unhappy, we couldn't seem to be of real help to other people"

Page 82: 3: "Sometimes we hear an alcoholic say that the only thing he needs to do is to keep sober. Certainly he must keep sober, for there will be no home if he doesn't. But he is yet a long way from making good to the wife or parents whom for years he has so shockingly treated."

Page 82: 4: "We feel a man is unthinking when he says sobriety is enough."

"Keep coming back....it will rub off on you...you'll get it by osmosis."

Page 64: 1: "Though our decision was a vital and crucial step, it could have little permanent effect unless at once followed by a strenuous effort to face, and to be rid of, the things in ourselves which had been blocking us"

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions:

Page 65; middle of page: ...in no case does He render us white as snow and keep us that way without our cooperation.

"Don't talk to the prospect when they're drunk"

Page 90: 3: "Don't deal with him when he is very drunk."

"AA is the ONLY way to stay sober"

Page 95: 4: "We have no monopoly on God; we merely have an approach that worked with us."

Page 144: 2: "When the man is presented with this volume it is best that no one tell him he must abide by its suggestions. The man must decide for himself."

"I was only harming myself"

Page 18:1: "But not so with the alcoholic illness, for with it there goes annihilation of all the things worthwhile in life. It engulfs all whose lives touch the sufferer's. It brings misunderstanding, fierce resentment, financial insecurity, disgusted friends and employers, warped lives of blameless children, sad wives and parents—anyone can increase the list."

Page 82:4: "The alcoholic is like a tornado roaring his way through the lives of others. Hearts are broken. Sweet relationships are dead. Affections have been uprooted. Selfish and inconsiderate habits have kept the home in turmoil."

Page 114:2 : "The wives and children of such men suffer horribly..."

Page 122:3: "Years of living with an alcoholic is almost sure to make any wife or child neurotic."

Page 155:1 : "It was the usual situation; home in jeopardy, wife ill, children distracted, bills in arrears and standing damaged."

"The group (or the rooms) are my Higher Power"

Page 24:4: "When this sort of thinking is fully established in an individual with alcoholic tendencies, he has probably placed himself beyond human aid..."

Page 34:2: "Whether such a person can quit upon a nonspiritual basis depends upon the extent to which he has already lost the power to choose whether he will drink or not."

(Note: see "Writing the Big Book: the Creation of A A" by Bill Schaberg pgs. 280-281)

"I don't know anything about the Big Book, but this is how I do (did) it."

Or

"You don't need the Big Book, it's my opinion that..."

Page 19:1: "We have concluded to publish an anonymous volume setting forth the problem as we see it. We shall bring to the task our combined experience and knowledge. This should suggest a useful program for anyone concerned with a drinking problem."

Page 42:3: "...spiritual principles (NOTE = the steps) would solve all my problems."

"Take what you want and leave the rest"

Or

"This is a program of suggestions"

Page 17:3: "The tremendous fact for every one of us is that we have discovered a common solution. We have a way out on which we can absolutely agree, and upon which we can join in brotherly and harmonious action. This is the great news this book carries to those who suffer from alcoholism."

Page 19:3: "We shall bring to the task our combined experience and knowledge. This should suggest a useful program for anyone concerned with a drinking problem."

Page 59:3: "Here are the steps we took, which are suggested as a program of recovery"

"Shut up and listen"

Or

"Take the cotton out of your ears and put it in your mouth"

Page 84, Paragraph 2: "Love and tolerance of others is our code."

Page 90: 1: "When you discover a prospect for Alcoholics Anonymous, find out all you can about him."

Page 91: 3: "...encourage him to speak of himself. If he wishes to talk, let him do so."

Page 95: 1 "If you do stay, let him steer the conversation in any direction he likes."

"I'm powerless over people, places and things"

Page 89: 2: "You can help when no one else can. You can secure their confidence when others fail."

Page 89: 3: "...because of your own drinking experience you can be uniquely useful to other alcoholics."

Page 132: 3: "We have recovered, and have been given the power to help others."

"You must change people, places and things"

Page 100: 4 – 101: 0: "Assuming we are spiritually fit, we can do all sorts of things alcoholics are not supposed to do. People have said we must not go where liquor is served; we must not have it in our homes; we must shun friends who drink; we must avoid moving pictures which show drinking scenes; we must not go into bars; our friends must hide their bottles if we go to their houses; we mustn't think or be reminded about alcohol at all. Our experience shows that this is not necessarily so.

Page 101: 1: "We meet these conditions every day. An alcoholic who cannot meet them, still has an alcoholic mind; there is something the matter with his spiritual status. His only chance for sobriety would be someplace like the Greenland Ice Cap, and even there an Eskimo might turn up with a bottle of scotch and ruin everything!

Page 101: 2: "In our belief any scheme of combating alcoholism which proposes to shield the sick man from temptation is doomed to failure.

Page 101: 3: "So our rule is not to avoid a place where there is drinking, IF WE HAVE A LEGITIMATE REASON FOR BEING THERE. That includes bars, nightclubs, dances, receptions, weddings, even plain ordinary whoopee parties. To a person who has had experience with an alcoholic, this may seem like tempting Providence, but it isn't.

Page 101: 4 – 102: 0: "You will note that we made an important qualification. Therefore, ask yourself on each occasion, "Have I any good social, business, or personal reason for going to this place? Or am I expecting to steal a little vicarious pleasure from the atmosphere of such places?" If you answer these questions satisfactorily, you need have no apprehension. Go or stay away, whichever seems best. But be sure you are on solid spiritual ground before you start and that your motive in going is thoroughly good...

Page 102: 2: "Your job now is to be at the place where you may be of maximum helpfulness to others, so never hesitate to go anywhere if you can be helpful. You should not hesitate to visit the most sordid spot on earth on such an errand. Keep on the firing line of life with these motives and God will keep you unharmed."

33. Most emphatically we wish to say that any alcoholic capable of honestly facing his problems in the light of our experience can recover, provided he does not close his mind to all spiritual concepts. (Appendix II Spiritual Experience)

"There are no musts in A.A."

(Remember: There are many ways to say "must")

THE DOCTOR'S OPINION

1. Page xxiii: Convincing testimony must surely come from medical men who have had experience with the sufferings of our members and have witnessed our return to health.
2. page xxiii: As part of his rehabilitation he commenced to present his conceptions to other alcoholics, impressing on them that they must do likewise with still others.
3. page xxiv: In this statement he confirms what we who have suffered alcoholic torture must believe -- that the body of the alcoholic is quite as abnormal as his mind.
4. Page xxiv: More often than not, it is imperative that a man's brain be cleared before he is approached
5. page xxvi: The message which can interest and hold these alcoholic people must have depth and weight.
6. page xxvi: In nearly all cases, their ideals must be grounded in a power greater than themselves, if they are to re-create their lives.
7. page xxvii: I must stop, but I cannot!
8. page xxvii: You must help me!
9. page xxvii: Faced with this problem, if a doctor is honest with himself, he must sometimes feel his own inadequacy.
10. page xxvii: Though the aggregate of recoveries resulting from psychiatric effort is considerable, we physicians must admit we have made little impression upon the problem as a whole.

CHAPTER 1 BILL'S STORY

11. page 5:1: Liquor ceased to be a luxury; it became a necessity.
12. page 5:1: A tumbler full of gin followed by half a dozen bottles of beer would be required if I were to eat any breakfast.
13. page 10:0: Certainly I was interested. I had to be for I was hopeless.
14. page 10:3: I simply had to believe in a Spirit of the Universe...
15. page 14: Simple, but not easy; a price had to be paid
16. page 14: I must turn in all things to the Father of Light who presides over us all.
17. page 14: My friend emphasized the absolute necessity of demonstrating these principles in all my affairs.
18. page 14: Particularly was it imperative to work with others...

CHAPTER 2 THERE IS A SOLUTION

19. page 19: Of necessity there will have to be discussion of matters medical, psychiatric, social and religious.
20. page 20:0: Our very lives, as ex-problem drinkers depend upon our constant thought of others and how we may help meet their needs.
21. page 20: His will power must be weak.
22. page 25:1: Almost none of us liked the self-searching, the leveling of our pride, the confession of shortcomings which the process requires for its successful consummation.
23. page 29: Our hope is that many alcoholic men and women, desperately in need will see these pages, and we believe that it is only by fully disclosing ourselves and our problems that they will be persuaded to say, "Yes I am one of them too; I must have this thing."

CHAPTER 3 MORE ABOUT ALCOHOLISM

24. page 30:2: We learned that we had to fully concede to our innermost selves that we were alcoholics... The delusion that we are like other people, or presently may be has to be smashed.
25. page 33: If we are planning to stop drinking, there must be no reservation of any kind, nor any lurking notion that someday we will be immune to alcohol.
26. page 42:1: I had to concede both propositions.
27. page 43: His defense must come from a Higher Power.

CHAPTER 4 WE AGNOSTICS

28. page 44:3: But after a while we had to face the fact that....
29. page 44:3: ... we must find a spiritual basis of life -- or else.
30. page 45:1: We had to find a power by which we could live...
31. page 45:1: ...and it had to be a Power greater than ourselves.
32. Page 47:1: Do not let any prejudice you may have against spiritual terms deter you from honestly asking yourself what they mean to you.
33. page 48:0: This sort of thinking had to be abandoned.
34. page 50:4: This happened soon after they wholeheartedly met a few simple requirements.
35. Page 52:2: We had to ask ourselves why we shouldn't apply to our human problems the same readiness to change our point of view.
36. page 52:3: We had to stop doubting the power of God.
37. page 53:2: We had to fearlessly face the proposition that either God is everything or else He is nothing.
38. Page 55:3: Sometimes we had to search fearlessly...

CHAPTER 5 HOW IT WORKS

39. Page 60:4: The first requirement is that we be convinced...
40. page 62:2: Above everything, we alcoholics must be rid of this selfishness.
41. page 62:2: We must, or it kills us!
42. page 62:2: We had to have God's help.
43. page 62:3: First of all, we had to quit playing God
44. page 66:2: If we were to live, we had to be free of anger.
45. page 66:3: We saw that these resentments must be mastered, but how?
46. page 69:3: Whatever our ideal turns out to be, we must be willing to grow toward it.
47. page 69:3: We must be willing to make amends where we have done harm, provided that we do not bring about still more harm in so doing.

CHAPTER 6 INTO ACTION

48. page 72:1: This requires action on our part...
49. page 73: We must be entirely honest with somebody if we expect to live long or happily in this world.
50. page 74: Those of us who belong to a religious denomination which requires confession must, and of course, will want to go to the properly appointed authority whose duty is to receive it.
51. page 74: The rule is we must be hard on ourself, but always considerate of others.
52. page 75: But we must not use this as a mere excuse to postpone.
53. page 76:1: We have emphasized willingness as being indispensable.
54. page 77:2: Under no condition do we criticize such a person or argue.

55. page 78: We must lose our fear of creditors no matter how far we have to go, for we are liable to drink if we are afraid to face them.
56. page 79: We must not shrink at anything.
57. page 80: If we obtained permission, have consulted with others, asked God to help and the drastic step is indicated we must not shrink.
58. page 81: In fairness we must say that she may understand, but what are we going to do about a thing like that?
59. page 82: Certainly he must keep sober, for there will be no home if he doesn't.
60. page 83:1: We must take the lead.
61. Page 83:2: The spiritual life is not a theory. We have to live it.
62. page 83: We must remember that ten or twenty years of drunkenness would make a skeptic out of anyone.
63. page 85: Every day is a day when we must carry the vision of God's will into all of our activities.
64. page 85: These are the thoughts which must go with us constantly.
65. page 85: But we must go further and that means more action.
66. page 86: But we must be careful not to drift into worry, remorse or morbid reflection, for that would diminish our usefulness to others.

CHAPTER 7 WORKING WITH OTHERS

67. page 89: To watch people recover, to see them help others, to watch loneliness vanish, to see a fellowship grow up about you, to have a host of friends -- this is an experience you must not miss.
68. page 90: The family must decide these things.
69. page 93: To be vital, faith must be accompanied by self sacrifice and unselfish, constructive action.
70. page 95:1: Never talk down to an alcoholic....

71. page 95:3: After doing that, he must decide for himself whether he wants to go on.
72. page 95:3: If he is to find God, the desire must come from within him.
73. page 97:1: Never avoid these responsibilities.
74. page 97:2: You have to act the Good Samaritan every day...
75. page 99: In many homes this is a difficult thing to do, but it must be done if any results are to be expected.
76. page 99: But we must try to repair the damage immediately lest we pay the penalty by a spree.
77. page 99: If their old relationship is to be resumed it must be on a better basis, since the former did not work.
78. page 100: Both you and the new man must walk day by day in the path of spiritual progress.
79. page 102:0: But if you are shaky, you had better work with another alcoholic instead.
80. page 102:3: We never argue this question.
81. page 103:1: We are careful never to show intolerance or hatred of drinking as an institution.
82. page 103:3: Besides, we have stopped fighting anybody or anything. We have to!

CHAPTER 8 TO WIVES

83. page 111: Our next thought is that you should never tell him what he must do about his drinking.
84. page 113: Wait until repeated stumbling convinces him he must act, for the more you hurry him the longer his recovery will be delayed.
85. page 114: But sometimes you must start life anew.

86. page 115: But you must be on guard not to embarrass or harm your husband.
87. page 115: You will no longer be self-conscious or feel that you must apologize as though your husband were a weak character.
88. page 117:3: Often you must carry the burden of avoiding them or keeping them under control.
89. page 117:3: Never forget that resentment is a deadly hazard to an alcoholic.
90. page 118: Yet you must expect too much.
91. page 120:1: Your husband will see at once that he must redouble his spiritual activities if he expects to survive.
92. page 120:3: Never, never try to arrange a man's life...

CHAPTER 9 THE FAMILY AFTERWARD

93. page 127: The family must realize that dad, though marvelously improved, is still convalescing...But he must see the danger of over-concentration on financial success.
94. page 127: We know there are difficult wives and families, but the man who is getting over alcoholism must remember he did much to make them so.
95. page 130: That is where our fellow travelers are, and that is where our work must be done.
96. page 135: The others must be convinced of his new status beyond the shadow of a doubt.

CHAPTER 10 TO EMPLOYERS

97. page 141: State that you know about his drinking, and that it must stop.
98. page 143:0: ...a certain amount of physical treatment is desirable, even imperative.
99. page 143:1: Though you are providing him with the best possible medical attention, he should understand that he must undergo a change of heart.

CHAPTER 11 A VISION FOR YOU

100. page 152: "...I know I must get along without liquor, but how can I?..."
101. page 153: They will approach still other sick ones and fellowships of Alcoholics Anonymous may spring up in each city and hamlet, havens for those who must find a way out.
102. page 154: There must be many such in this town.
103. page 155:3: He saw that he would have to face.....
104. page 156: Both saw that they must keep spiritually active.
105. page 159: Though they knew they must help other alcoholics if they would remain sober, that motive became secondary.
106. page 164: God will determine that, so you must remember that your real reliance is always upon Him.

APPENDIX II....SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCE

107. page 569: Yet it is true that our first printing gave many readers the impression that these personality changes, or religious experiences, must be in the nature of sudden and spectacular upheavals.
108. page 569: Though it was not our intention to create such an impression, many alcoholics have nevertheless concluded that in order to recover they must acquire an immediate and overwhelming "God-consciousness" followed at once by a vast change in feeling and outlook.

"If they want it bad enough, they'll ask ME for help....or my phone number"

Among the many points Bill Wilson makes over and over in the Big Book is that it is the responsibility, the obligation of those who are living in the solution as the result of the steps to approach the newcomer or someone who is struggling or suffering. The attitude found in today's recovery culture of "if they want it bad enough, they'll come and ask me for help" is nowhere to be found in the Big Book.

Or, how about giving phone numbers to newcomers without taking theirs and making the first contact yourself? Clearly we expect too much from the newcomer. How many of us when new were able to pick up the phone and talk to a total stranger about our problems, fears or God?

So, what follows is a partial list of references to "making the approach."

1. "More often than not, it is imperative that a man's brain be cleared before he is approached, as he has then a better chance of understanding and accepting what we have to offer." (Doctor's Opinion, pg. xxiv)
2. "He had come to pass his experience along to me" (Bill's Story, pg. 9:7)
3. "That the man who is making the approach has had the same difficulty, that he obviously knows what he is talking about" (There Is A Solution, Pg. 18:5)
4. "After such an approach many take up their beds and walk again." (There Is A Solution, Pg. 19:0)
5. "When, therefore, we were approached by those in whom the problem had been solved, there was nothing left for us but to pick up the simple kit of spiritual tools laid at our feet." (There Is A Solution, Pg. 25:1)
6. "This is our twelfth suggestion: Carry this message to other alcoholics!" (Working With Others pg. 89:1)
7. "You can easily find some by asking a few doctors, ministers, priests or hospitals." (Working With Others pg. 89:1)
8. "You need this information to put yourself in his place, to see how you would like him to approach you if the tables were turned." (Working With Others pg. 90:2)

9. Approach through a doctor or an institution is a better bet. (Working With Others pg. 91:1)
10. When your man is better, the doctor might suggest a visit from you. (Working With Others pg. 91:2)
11. Call on him while he is still jittery. (Working With Others pg. 91:2)
12. Your job now is to be at the place where you may be of maximum helpfulness to others...(Working With Others pg. 102:2)
13. ...so never hesitate to go anywhere if you can be helpful. (Working With Others pg. 102:2)
14. You should not hesitate to visit the most sordid spot on earth on such an errand. (Working With Others pg. 102:2)
15. When we see a man sinking into the mire that is alcoholism, we give him first aid...(The Family Afterwards Pg. 132:1)
16. ...and place what we have at his disposal. (The Family Afterwards Pg. 132:1)
17. Following his discharge, we contacted him. (To Employers 139:1)
18. We think this method of approach will accomplish several things. (To Employers 148:3)
19. The other day an approach was made to the vice president of a large industrial concern. He remarked: "I'm glad you fellows got over your drinking." (To Employers 148:4)
20. They will approach still other sick ones and fellowships of Alcoholics Anonymous may spring up in each city and hamlet (A Vision For You pg. 153:2)
21. In the chapter "Working With Others" you gathered an idea of how we approach and aid others to health. (A Vision For You pg. 153:3)
22. Every few days this doctor suggests our approach to one of his patients. (A Vision For You pg. 162:1)

Food for thought:

"You can only keep what you have by giving it away."

Page 159:2: Though they knew they must help other alcoholics if they would remain sober, that motive became secondary. It was transcended by the happiness they found in giving themselves for others.

A lofty aspiration or a realistic objective???
